Cresco Foods specializes in the sourcing, supply, import and export, and wholesale distribution of the highest quality foods and other specialty goods.
Cresco World Trading Ltd. (CWT), specialize in the sourcing, supply, import and export, and wholesale distribution of the highest quality foods and other specialty goods.

We believe in the importance of building long-term relationships with our clients and suppliers by providing professional, service before, during, and after we have understood and met their requirements.

To help achieve this we have team members based in:

- Thailand,
- Vietnam,
- The Philippines, and
- China

Working closely with an ever-growing network of farmers, growers, suppliers and traders:

- visiting them regularly,
- taking samples,
- checking their produce and processing methods, and
- educating them on the latest techniques,
- ensuring we receive only the best quality foods and other goods.

Cresco now has well-established relationships with growers, suppliers, and traders in over forty countries, spanning across five continents. Having local expertise in so many markets provides us with invaluable market intelligence across the entire foods industry. From current consumer trends, to the latest developments in production, packaging, transport and logistics. Not only does this give us a significant competitive advantage, it means Cresco can help you make better, more informed decisions.

We have a strong network of local partners in many countries that we have built up over time and with whom we have negotiated preferential pricing. Given these relationships, we can usually source the products as cheaply, if not more cheaply, than you would if you called the source directly.

Our global reach enables us to fill orders more efficiently and cost-effectively, which means that we can guarantee you with most competitive cost prices across our entire offering.
